

Privacy Notice

Dated: 21 October 2025

How we use your information

Frontier Learning Trust uses your personal information in order to provide you with courses, events and wider opportunities. When you are an applicant, this is necessary to communicate with you in the consideration of offering you a place at a school or college within the Trust. When you are a student, this is necessary so that it is clear what courses you are taking, to provide you with a timetable and a personal tutor, to contact you when we need to, to monitor and advise about your progress, to enter you for the right exams, to carry out our safeguarding duties and offer you the chance to participate safely in a wide range of other activities. If you are attending an event or wish to keep informed of the Trust's activities, this allows us to communicate directly with you.

This notice gives you more information about how the Trust collects, stores, processes and shares your data and is intended for school pupils, prospective students and applicants to the College/School, current students, teachers, parents, staff, higher education professionals and other interested parties who would like further information on how we process, store and use personal data.

The categories of information that we may collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as your name, student ID, date of birth, dietary preferences, address and email address), emergency contact information, your ULN and UCI numbers. And your personal characteristics (such as ethnicity, gender, nationality and free school meal eligibility)
- A photograph of you for identification purposes of enrolled students
- Your educational achievements (such as your GCSE results) before you started at the College/School and your reference if your school supplied one
- Medical, financial, safeguarding and other information about support you need which help us look after you while at College/School
- Any additional learning needs you may have and reasonable adjustments that may be required
- The courses you have taken and are taking with us
- Assessment grades and report data on enrolled classes
- Attendance information (such as the lessons you have attended and your absences and punctuality record) on enrolled classes
- The books and other resources you borrow from the College/School during your course
- Your exam entries and your results in external exams taken at College/School
- What you tell us about your wider career related experiences and ambitions
- Further photographs or information your volunteer to us which help us to communicate the work of the College/School and for marketing purposes

- Your academic, pastoral and behavioural record if there are problems or issues while you are enrolled in College/School
- Any applications you make via the College/School such as UCAS and any references we provide for you
- Feedback you give us about the College/School or, from time to time, your views on other things.
- Work experience and other references we receive about you.
- Contact information submitted through our website forms (such as your name, email address, telephone number and message) when you get in touch with us online.

Why we collect and use this information

We use your data:

- to identify and communicate with you
- to obtain a reference from your school
- to offer you a programme of A level subjects
- to gather medical and educational needs so we can support you if offered a place

We use your data when you have enrolled as a student:

- to identify you and keep the both you and the College/School safe
- to support your learning
- to give you a timetable
- to monitor and report on your progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care and other support you may need
- to enter you for exams
- to request exam access arrangements or support during exams if necessary
- to enable you to make online payments and use the canteen
- to complete references and advise you about your progression options
- to assess the quality of our teaching, pastoral and other services
- to apply for funding and comply with funding agency requirements.

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect the following personal data under GDPR Article 6c (Legal Obligation), and 6g (Public Interest) as well as by explicit consent, in order to meet our legal obligations with the ESFA. They are also necessary in order for us to carry out our public task to provide education and training.

- Details about yourself including your name, date of birth, gender and ethnicity
- Contact details – your home address, home and mobile telephone numbers, email address
- Details of your previous qualifications and previous or current school
- Information about your nationality and residency to determine funding eligibility

- Information about medical/health conditions and learning disabilities or difficulties

We collect parent/carer details (name, address, email, telephone numbers) under GDPR Article 6d (Vital Interests) and Article 6e (Public Task) in order to support our duty to support the education and learning as fully as possible. Some data we will collect and process with your consent, such as surveys and photos for marketing.

We collect your information around your sex at birth, legal sex and ethnicity under GDPR Article 9e for equal opportunity monitoring.

Where information may reveal details about a student's health or special educational needs, it is also processed under Schedule 1, Part 2, Paragraph 8 of the Data Protection Act 2018 (Equality of opportunity or treatment).

Collecting information

Most of the information above is collected directly from yourself via registration, application or enrolment. If you are a student, a medical form is completed by your parent/carer after you have been given an offer or have enrolled. Some information such as previous qualifications may be collected or verified from other organisations such as the Learner Records Service or your previous school.

Failure to provide data required to meet legal obligations will result in us not being able to enrol you as a student. Failure to provide other information, for example learning difficulty information, may result in the college/school being unable to provide the standard of service we would wish to provide.

Website enquiries

The Trust's websites include contact forms which allow users to get in touch with the relevant school or college (for example Admissions or General Enquiries). When you submit an enquiry through one of these forms, we collect your name, email address, telephone number (if provided) and the content of your message. This information is used solely for the purpose of responding to your enquiry and, where appropriate, directing it to the relevant department so that we can deal with your request effectively.

The lawful basis for this processing is the Trust's legitimate interest in responding to and managing enquiries. The information you provide through these forms is not shared with any third parties, and is deleted in accordance with the Trust's data retention schedule once the enquiry has been resolved.

Please note that the contact forms are delivered through secure email and are subject to the same technical and organisational safeguards as all other Trust correspondence.

Storing your data/How long we keep your data

We hold your data securely on the College/School's databases and on paper in a secure environment.

We retain your data based on the below criteria:

- Applicant data for one year after the application process has finished so that we can effectively deal with re-applications.
- Student data for six years after you leave the College/School. We do this so that we can provide a reference for you if you need one or if you need to confirm you were a student here for other reasons. As such, we cannot act as a referee for you after six years after you have left the College/School.

Updating your data

We have a duty to keep your data up to date so will periodically ask you to check that it is all still correct.

Who we share information with

We share aspects of your personal information with:

- staff currently employed at the College/School to provide services to our students
- your previous school to inform us of your needs and them of your destination after college/school
- the funding agency and the Department for Education to meet our legal obligations and receive funding (see their privacy notice <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/esfa-privacy-notice>)
- Imperial College London to track, monitor, report on and evaluate Imperial College London Mathematicss School applicants, students, activities and marketing activities. Also to provide any other information you have requested. Please see their data privacy notice: <https://www.imperial.ac.uk/be-inspired/schools-outreach/about-outreach-team/outreach-data-privacy-notice/>
- exam awarding bodies to register you for exams and make Access Arrangements
- universities and employers who may ask us for a reference or CV
- your parents/carers to keep them informed of your progress
- external mentors or partner organisations working directly with the college/school to deliver learning or enrichment opportunities
- Tucasi and the college/school caterers to provide a cashless catering system and free school meal allowances
- Mind and Repheal House who provide counselling services
- ALPS and the SFCA (Six Dimensions) to monitor retention and achievement
- educational-related services and tools to help you in your learning and experience at college/school such as Kerboodle, Integral Maths, Hooster Boost, Unifrog, Google for Google Classroom and Microsoft for Office 365
- Safeguarding software including MyConcern and Lightspeed (filtering and monitoring)
- Croft who externally manage the Trust's IT and systems
- Barnet Council to support the Raising the Participation Age initiative
- police, CAMHS, social services organisations, local councils and other agencies for child protection purposes.
- Axiom maths and Vedamo for outreach activities

- Applicaa for admissions information
- The University of Nottingham regarding the study of mathematics education
- Sports Coaches
- The University Maths Schools Network, or U Maths, a Charity registered in England and Wales (number 1207125). This data is shared in a format that ensures the data subjects are not easily identifiable, but may include statistical information (such as attainment and progression) and demographic details (such as gender, ethnicity and socioeconomic status). The purpose of sharing this data is to assess the impact of both Imperial Maths School and the broader University Maths Schools programme in England.

Where the Trust uses proprietary software subscriptions to process personal data on its behalf, we require them to do so on the basis of written instructions, are under a duty of confidentiality and are obliged to implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of data.

Why we share information

We do not share information about anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share students' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

LRS Data Sharing Agreement:

The information you supply will be used by the Skills Funding Agency, an executive agency of the Department for Education (DfE), to issue you with a Unique Learner Number (ULN), and to create your Personal Learning Record. For more information about how your information is processed and shared refer to the Extended Privacy Notice available on Gov.UK

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, parents and students have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information contact the Trust's Data Protection Officer (DPO).

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- have inaccurate personal data rectified, and, in certain circumstances, data can be blocked, erased or destroyed;
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>.

The Right to be Forgotten

You have the right to obtain the erasure of personal data where this data is no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected and processed. However, there are certain limits on this right, such as the need to retain data for funding or safeguarding and obligations.

Any person who wishes to exercise this right should complete the college/school "Subject Access Request" form and submit it to the Trust's Data Protection Officer. (Completion of this form is not mandatory but doing so will accelerate a request)

The Trust may charge a fee if the request is manifestly unfounded or excessive.

The Trust aims to comply with requests as quickly as possible but will ensure that it is provided within one month unless there is good reason for delay. In such cases, the reason for delay will be explained in writing to the person making the request.
